Congratulations! You have been named a Best of London recipient.

For the last five years we have asked the readers of The London Free Press to submit the names of their favourite businesses and services. This year's Best of London survey featured over 170 categories. Voting closed on January 24, 2016 with a total of 8019 readers taking part in this year's survey making it the most popular Best of London contest ever!

It is with great pleasure we inform you that Print Three is the winner in the Best PRINTING/GRAPHICS/SIGN SHOP category.

As one of the Best of London, please accept the enclosed window decal and certificate to display as you deem appropriate.

In celebration of the winner and runner-up businesses, we will be producing a special Best of London publication to be distributed on March 26, 2016. This much anticipated special section will give your business direct exposure to a potential 200,000 readers in our 7 county markets. The section will also be available online for the entire year giving you even more exposure to over 70,000 unique daily readers on www.lfpres.com. Only category winners and runners up are eligible to participate in this publication.

New this year – you also have the opportunity to tell your story to both our print and online readers via our sponsored content special feature. Please see the accompanying publication details and speak with your account representative to take advantage of this great opportunity to promote your business to our London Free Press readers.

Congratulations on being one of the best.
